

DEVELOPMENT OF TOOLS AND RESOURCES

The Data Center Standards Committee will also develop and maintain tools and resources for the community such as RFIs, RFPs and Questionnaires, among others. These documents will be grounded in the principles of Open-IX and the OIX-2 Standard. The purpose of these resources will be to assist potential buyers of data center space to fully understand the multiple criteria that may influence a good procurement decision.